Recipients of the Starkey-Robinson Award for Graduate Research on Canada
Récipiendaires du Prix Starkey-Robinson de la recherche supérieure sur le Canada

2026 – Jesse Sutton, University of Western Ontario
The Interactions Underpinning the Determinants of Regional Economic Resilience: Insights from Canada

2025 – Jodi John, Queen's University
Fostering Relationships, Connection, and Health in Kenhtè:ke

2024 – Kristi Leora Gansworth
Anguilla Rostrata, Our Teacher: Addressing Anishnabe Epistemicide Through Eels

2023 – Two recipients

- Farzam Fatolazadeh, Université Sherbrooke (left)
Improving and downscaling GRACE and GRACE-FO data for the retrieval of terrestrial water storage and groundwater storage changes at finer scale

- Justine Townsend, University of Guelph (right)
Indigenous and Decolonial Futurities: Indigenous Protected and Conserved Areas as Potential Pathways of Reconciliation

2022 – Miranda Monosky, Memorial University
Social and Community Engaged Mine Closure: An Exploration of Mine Closure Governance and Industry Practices in Northern Canada

2021 – Paul Nesbit, University of Calgary
3D Geologic Mapping and Characterization Using Digital Outcrop Models Generated from Uninhabited Aerial Vehicles and Structure-from-Motion Photogrammetry

2020 – Jessica Hallenbeck, University of British Columbia
The water we call home : Five generations of Indigenous women's resistance along the Salish Sea

2019 – Jonathan Luedee, University of British Columbia
Science, Borders and Boundaries in the Western Arctic: Environmental Histories of the Porcupine Caribou Herd

2019 – Paul van der Werf, University of Western Ontario
Developing and Testing a Novel Intervention to Reduce Household Food Waste

2018 – Vincent Lecours, Memorial University
Marine geomorphometry; marine habitat mapping

2017 – Brendan O'Neill, Carleton University
The ground thermal regime of the Peel Plateau, Northwest Territories, Canada

2016 - two recipients

- Katie Hemsworth, Queen's University (Shown here)
Carceral acoustemologies: Sonic enactments of space and power in prisons.

- Andrew Perkins, Simon Fraser University
Refining the pattern and style of deglaciation on the southern Fraser Plateau and environs.

2015 - Matt Dyce, University of British Columbia
A Spatial History of Canada: Archives, Knowledge and Geography

2014 - J P Catungal, University of Toronto
For us, by us": political geographies of race, sexuality and health in the work of ethno-specific AIDS service organizations in global-multicultural Toronto

2013 - two recipients

- Nathaniel Lewis (left) Queen's University (Shown here)
Moving 'Out', Moving On: Gay Men's Migrations through The Life Course

- Jared Peters, Simon Fraser University
Late Pleistocene evolution of glacial Lake Purcell: A potential floodwater source to the Channeled Scabland

2012 - Julia Christenson, McGill University
Homelessness In A Homeland: Housing (In) Security and Homelessness in Inuvik And Yellowknife, Northwest Territories, Canada

2011 - Rosalind Franklin, Concordia University
Places of Everyday Generosity: the philanthropy of Newfoundlanders in Fort McMurray

2010 - Andrey N. Petrov - University of Toronto
Marginal Regions in Discursive Space: An Examination of Socio-Economic Conditions, Development Paths and Spatial Differentiation in the Economic Systems of the Canadian And Russian North

2009 - Emma Stewart - University of Calgary
Comparing resident attitudes towards tourism: Community-based cases from Arctic Canada

2008 - Jesse Proudfoot -Simon Fraser University
At Street Level: Bureaucrats and the Spaces of Regulation

2007 - Shannon Studen Bower - University of British Columbia
Wet Prairie ; An Environmental History of Wetlands, Flooding and Drainage in Agricultural Manitoba, 1810-1950

2006 - Mary Subedar - University of British Columbia
When States Design: Making space on native reserves

2005 - two recipients
- Timothy F. Johnsen - Simon Fraser University
"Late Glacial Lakes of the Thompson Basin, Southern Interior of British Columbia: Paleogeography and Paleoenvironment
- Carolyn Whitzman - McMaster University
The Dreams Attached to Places: from suburb, to slum, to urban village in a Toronto neighbourhood, 1875-2002

2004 - NO AWARD

2003 - Sarah de Leeuw, University of Northern British Columbia
Along Highway 16: A Creative Meditation on the Geography of Northern British Columbia

2002 - Michael Buzzelli, McMaster University
The Canadian Urban Housebuilding Industry: Firm: Size Structure and Production Methods in Ontario,

1945- 2000

2001 - Lilian Ford, University of British Columbia
Coyote Goes Downriver: An Historical Geography of Coyote Migration into the Fraser Valley

2000 - Phil Morris, University of Northern British Columbia
Negotiating the Production of Space in Tl'azt'en Territory, 1969-1984

1997-99 - NO AWARD
(Following a revision by the Executive of the terms of reference for the Starkey-Robinson Award, the CAG relaunched this award in 2000.)

1996 - Tony Isaak, University of Saskatchewan
Aboriginal Land Claims and Cultural Preservation: A Cultural Geography of the Mackenzie Delta Inuvialuit

1995 - Charlotte McCallum, Carleton University
The Effect of Québec"s Agricultural Preservation Law on Agriculture and Rural Land Use near Sherbrooke, Québec

1994 - Ineke Dijks, Queen's University
The Canadian National Railway and Colonization and Settlement of the Peace River Area of Alberta

1993 - Siri Bartelsen, University of British Columbia
The Transformation of Regional Shopping Centres in Vancouver

1992 - Susan McFarlane, Queen's University
The Ontario-Manitoba Boundary Question and Regional Identity

1991 - Andrew Haden, University of Alberta
Farmers' Attitudes and Agricultural Land Expansion in the Peace River Area

1990 - Irena Onrijchuk, Simon Fraser University
Regionalism in the Face of Universality in West Coast Architecture